MEMORANDUM ORDER

This Court has received the joint status report from counsel for the parties, reflecting their agreement as to the procedure and timing their contemplated discovery efforts relating to whether and to what extent this Court's award of fees and expenses is to be levied on plaintiffs. Counsel's anticipated efforts, as reflected in the joint status report, are commendable and appear constructive, but one further bit of information is needed to enable this Court to keep the matter active on its follow-up calendar: the designation of a next date for a further such report.

Instead of this Court selecting an arbitrary date that may or may not make sense in light of the necessarily fluid nature of the procedures reflected in the current report, this Court invites counsels' input on the subject. All that needs to be done in that respect is for counsel to file a simple supplement to the current report designating what appears to be a suitable next date for an updated report.
